The next 7 albums were unusual releases. Teacho Wiltshire arranged and conducted the orchestra..The album was released with seven different covers, with the name of a Disc Jockey listed on the upper portion of the front cover as the presenter of the album. All the covers were identical except the DJ’s name. The record inside the cover was the same with the number T 1730-37. This same idea was used by other record companies when “various artists” albums were released in different parts of the US with different radio station call letters and pictures of that stations disc jockey’s on the back cover.

ST/T 2553 - Yesterday and Today - Beatles [1966] The original cover of this album had a picture of the Beatles in Butcher's smocks with broken dolls and raw meat draped over them. Some say that it was the Beatles protest to the way Capitol butchered their UK albums by taking 2 songs off of each which resulted in enough material to issue this album. Other people say that it was the Beatles way of protesting the Vietnam War. Capitol printed thousands of albums and shipped them to the stores, but had second thoughts before they were sold to the public and demanded that they be returned. Capitol took the original album covers and pasted the new cover over the old one. This has resulted in people removing the new picture and revealing the original cover. Covers containing the original picture that are still sealed are known as "first state" and were probably spirited away by Capitol employees or kept by reviewers that received an advance copy and didn't return it as requested by Capitol. Covers that have the new cover still covering the old cover are known as "second state". Covers that have had the new picture removed from the original by various means (and uncertain results) are known as "third state". DT/T 2580 - Smile - Beach Boys [Unissued.] This is probably the most famous unreleased album in recording history. The original title to the album was "Dumb Angel" and was a collaboration between Brian Wilson and Van Dyke Parks. The reputation of this album grew and grew before its release, it was thought to be the Beach Boys answer to the Beatles "Revolver" and was going to top their own classic "Pet Sounds". Capitol printed 438,000 "Smile" covers (sometimes found on the collector's market) anticipating a Christmas 1966 release. As Brian Wilson became increasingly erratic with mental problems and drug use, the many hours of recordings were shelved. Some of the songs recorded were eventually released on other Beach Boys albums. The song titles listed on the back of the original printed cover. Do You Like Worms?/Wind Chimes/Heroes And Villains/Surfs Up/Good Vibrations/Cabin Essence/Wonderful/I'm In Great Shape/The Elements/Vega-Tables/The Old Master Painter

Brian Wilson and Van Dyke Parks completed "Smile" in 2003 and it was performed live in London and released on the Nonesuch CD 79846. The Tracks to that CD are as follows: Our Prayer-Gee/Heroes and Villians/Roll Plymouth Rock (Original title was Do You Like Worms?)/Barnyard/Old Master Painter-You Are My Sunshine/Cabin Essence/Wonderful/Song for Children/Child is Father of the Man/Surf's Up/I'm in Great Shape-I Wanna Be Around-Workshop/Vega-Tables/On a Holiday/Wind Chimes/Mrs. O'Leary's Cow/In Blue Hawaii/Good Vibrations
